

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SALE
PRYSMIAN CABLURI SI SISTEME S.A. ROMANIA

1. General

- 1.1 These General Terms and Conditions of Sale (also “GT&C”) provide for the mutual rights and obligations of the Parties in connection with all supplies of the Prysmian Group portfolio products and other goods (hereinafter both referred to as the “Goods”) by PRYSMIAN CABLURI SI SISTEME S.A. (hereinafter the “Seller”) to another party (hereinafter the “Buyer”) and form an integral part of each contract providing for the sale or supply of the Goods by the Seller to the Buyer, unless the Parties expressly agree otherwise in writing.
- 1.2 These GT&C shall apply irrespective of any referrals of the Buyer to his own general terms and conditions or similar conditions, which shall have no legal force, even if Seller has not explicitly objected to such general terms and conditions or similar conditions of the Buyer. This shall in particular also apply, if Seller made the reference to such conditions with knowledge of contradictory or different conditions of the Buyer.

2. Order & Delivery of Goods

- 2.1 The sale contract may be concluded by a written agreement signed both by the Seller and the Buyer, or by means of an order placed by the Buyer and its subsequent written acceptance by the Seller (hereinafter named the “Sale Contract”). An order for purchase of Goods (hereinafter the “Order”) may be placed in writing, by fax or e-mail. The Sale Contract is concluded in the moment of signing of the written agreement by the Seller and the Buyer or, as the case may be, the moment of written confirmation of the Buyer’s Order by the Seller or the moment when the Seller starts production based on the Order. To avoid any doubt, it is agreed that the Seller is not obliged to accept the Order and thus to conclude the Sale Contract.
- 2.2 The Seller reserves the right to refuse a Buyer’s acceptance of a quotation unless such quotation is stated to be open for a specific period and is not withdrawn by the Seller within such period. When no period is stated, the quotation is only valid for 15 days after its date. A new quotation will be required for any changes requested by the Buyer to any goods already quoted for.
- 2.3 By conclusion of the Sale Contract, the Seller agrees to deliver the Goods to the Buyer on the agreed date and in the agreed quantity and quality and the Buyer agrees to take over the Goods and pay the purchase price for the Goods to the Seller, properly and in due time. The Goods shall be delivered to a place of delivery defined in the Sale Contract .
- 2.4 The Order must include the following basic details:
- (a) business name of the Buyer,
  - (b) number of registration in the Trade Register, tax identification number, registered office of the Buyer;
  - (c) the name and phone number of the contact person;
  - (d) the number of the Seller’s quotation if a quotation has been presented to the Buyer;
  - (e) the sort of goods according to the Seller’s quotation if a quotation has been presented to the Buyer, the required number/amount;
  - (f) place of delivery, manner of delivery, delivery terms according to Incoterms 2010
  - (g) the required time of delivery (which, however, is not binding on the Seller unless agreed otherwise);
  - (h) special requirements for the delivery of the Goods – e.g. delivery by a car equipped with a crane, delivery to a construction site etc. (these requirements are not binding on the Seller unless agreed otherwise).
  - (i) the value of the Order
- Failure to include any of the abovementioned items will not render the contract void or these GTC inapplicable or ineffective, however, the Seller will be entitled to complete such lack of information based on the information known from the previous communication with the Buyer or otherwise known to the Seller and as per the assumptions mentioned herein (e.g. assuming EXW delivery conditions mentioned in 2.9) and Seller will not be liable for the delay or extra costs due to reasonable misunderstandings.
- 2.5 The Seller reserves the right to supply the Goods with a deviation of 10 % from the agreed amounts/numbers of individual Goods; the Buyer is obliged to pay the purchase price corresponding to the actually supplied amounts/numbers of the Goods, unless agreed otherwise.
- 2.6 The Seller is entitled to deliver the ordered Goods in multiple shipments.

- 2.7 If the Seller does not deliver the agreed Goods properly and in due time and this breach of the Seller's obligation is not caused by circumstances excluding liability under section 1.351 – 1.354 of the Romanian Civil Code, the Buyer, after a grace period of 10 business days, is entitled to claim that the Seller pay a contractual penalty in the amount of 0.05 % of the purchase price of the Goods that were not delivered properly and in due time for each day of delay under the following conditions:
- (a) The total amount of the contractual penalty may not exceed 10 % of the purchase price of the Goods that were not delivered properly and in due time (this cap will be applicable in any case, even if another liquidated damage is explicitly accepted by the Seller without a cap or with another cap);
  - (b) the Buyer is not entitled to terminate the contract or claim compensation for any damage caused by breach of obligations of the Seller that is subject to a contractual penalty, even if such damage exceeds the contractual penalty mentioned above at letter (a);
  - (c) The payment of the contractual penalty shall constitute the sole liability of the Seller and the Buyer's sole remedy for the delay of delivery, with the exclusion of whichever other rights or remedies the Buyer may have pursuant to the applicable laws;
- 2.8 The Buyer is not entitled to cancel, in whole or in part, as well as to make changes to the Orders that have already been confirmed without the prior and written consent from authorized employees of the Seller. If, after the Seller's written acceptance of the Order, the Buyer cancels or changes his Order, without the Seller's consent, the Seller will be entitled to claim compensation for all and any costs that incurred in connection with the cancelled or modified Order, including overhead costs plus reasonable and necessary expenses resulting from termination. In addition, in such a case, the Seller shall also be entitled to claim that the Buyer pay a lump-sum fee in the amount of 10 % of the total agreed price of the supply.
- 2.9 If the Seller does not accept the Buyer's requirements listed in article 2.4 (f), (g) or (h) made in the Order, he shall notify the Buyer of this and provide an alternative proposal. Unless the Buyer rejects the Seller's alternative proposal without undue delay, it is deemed that the Buyer agrees with the Seller's proposal.

- 2.14 The Seller may cancel any Order or any portion thereof, or suspend delivery of any or all Goods thereunder, without liability on its part, of (a) sale of the Goods by the Seller violates any law, statute, ordinance, regulation or administrative order of the country of origin or the country of destination; (b) there occurs any material adverse change in the creditworthiness of Buyer; (c) tariff, duties or other charges, or import or export restrictions that are not ordinarily imposed on or applicable to such Goods or that were not in existence or were at a less restrictive rate or level at the time the Order was executed, are imposed by an applicable jurisdiction; or the Seller's ability to perform is prevented, impaired, delayed, or made commercially impractical by any cause of force majeure.

6. Miscellaneous

- 6.1 Notwithstanding delivery and the passing of risk in the Goods, or any other provision of these GT&C, the Buyer acquires the ownership title to the Goods upon payment of the full purchase price. The Buyer agrees to ensure the Cases where the Buyer discloses this information within the performance of his statutory duty or where he discloses the information to entities required to maintain his confidentiality by the law are not deemed a breach of the obligation to maintain confidentiality. If the Buyer breaches the obligation under the preceding sentences of this provision, the Seller shall be entitled to claim from the Buyer the payment of a contractual penalty in the amount of RON 20.000 for each individual breach; the payment of the contractual penalty shall not prejudice the Seller's right to full compensation for damage.

- 6.5 Any designs, specifications, drawings or engineering data for the Goods that have been supplied by the Seller, under the Sale Contract shall remain the sole and exclusively property of the Seller. The Buyer is not allowed to use the Seller's trademark or trade name without the prior written consent of the Seller.
- 6.6 Any and all disputes arising out in connection with the Sale Contract shall be resolved by the competent court from Slatina. The Buyer hereby waives any objection that it may have based on lack of jurisdiction, improper venue or forum non conveniens.
- 6.7 The failure by Seller to enforce any term or condition contained herein shall not be considered a waiver thereof and shall not prevent Seller from enforcing any such term or condition thereafter. Seller's acceptance of partial payment is not a waiver of any right of the Seller.
- 6.8 Unless specifically agreed otherwise, the Buyer is responsible for compliance with all laws and regulations regarding, without limitation, any export, import, transport, storage and use of the Goods. Buyer shall be responsible for obtaining any necessary government approvals including permit and licenses for exportation and importation of the Goods.

The United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods will not be applicable. Any reference in these GT&C to a statute or a provision of a statute or law shall be construed as a reference to that statute, provision or law as amended, re-enacted or extended at the relevant time.
- 7.2 Should individual provisions of these GT & C become illegal, invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions of the contract shall not be affected.
- 7.3 Unless the Parties expressly agree otherwise, their mutual rights and obligations regarding the supplies of Goods shall be governed by the General Terms and Conditions of Sale in the wording effective as of the date of the proposal to execute an individual Sale Contract (Order, offer); when negotiating each delivery of Goods, the Buyer
